

Ken at the Toy Shop

By Doris

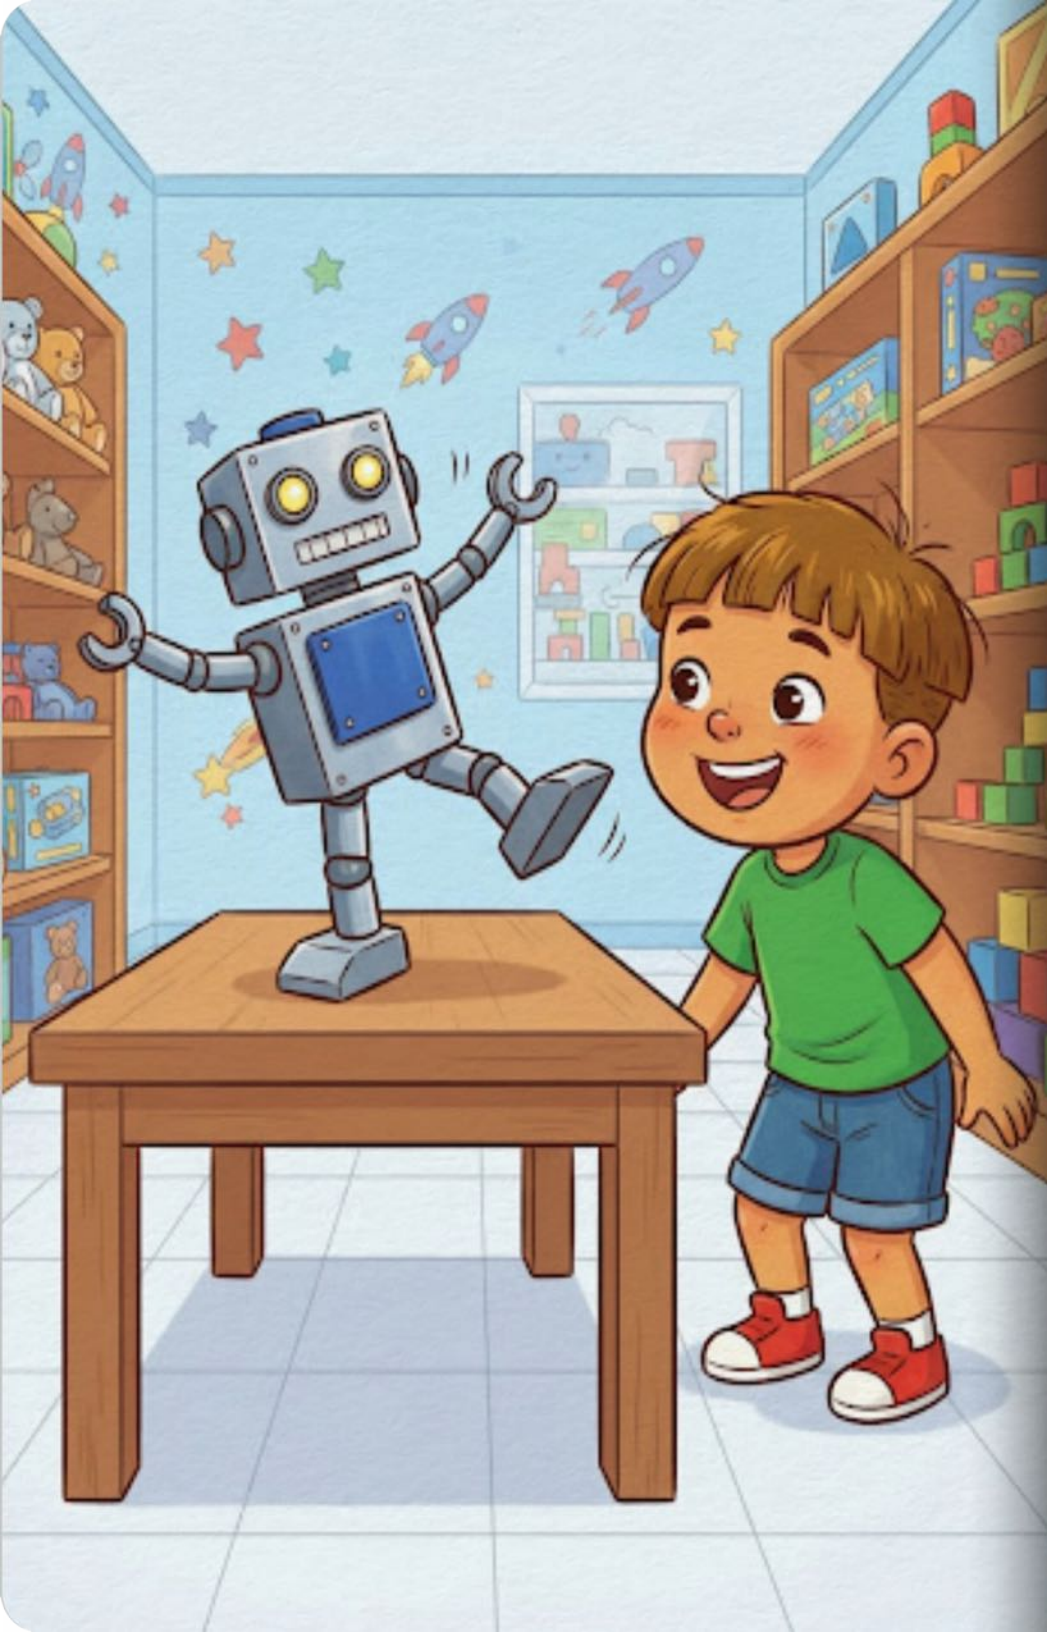

Ken goes to the toy shop with his mum.

He sees big robots and cool toy cars.

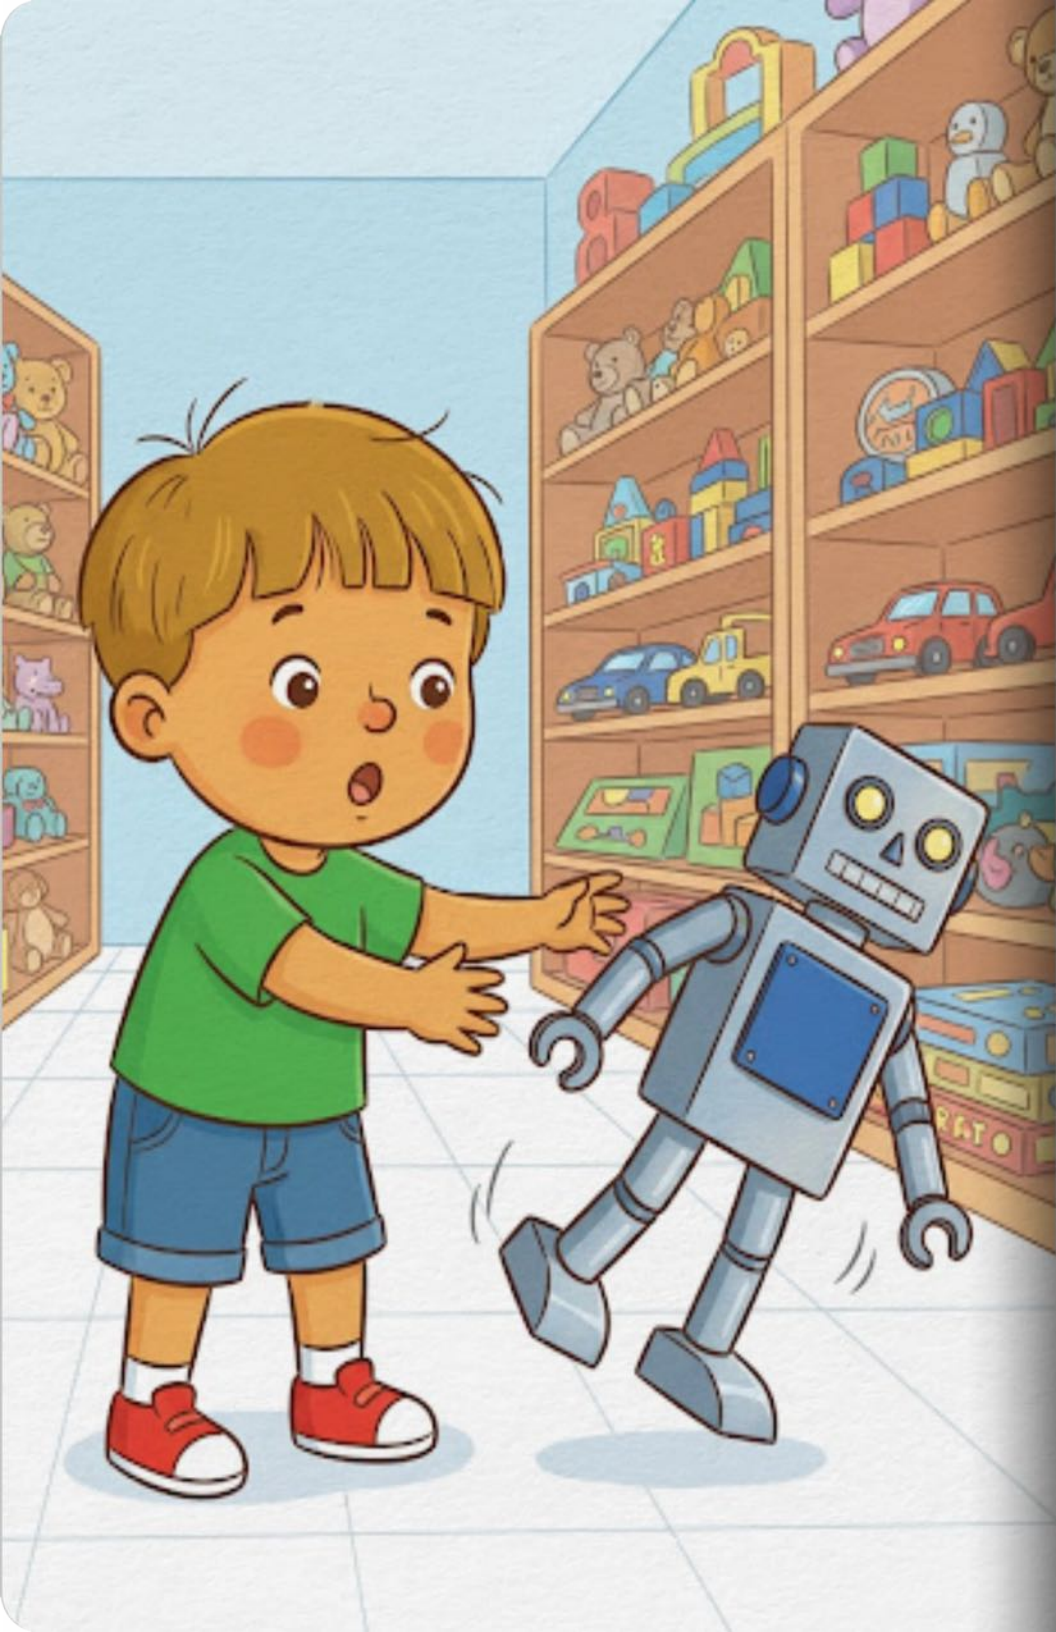

He points at a robot and says, "Look!
This is so cool!"

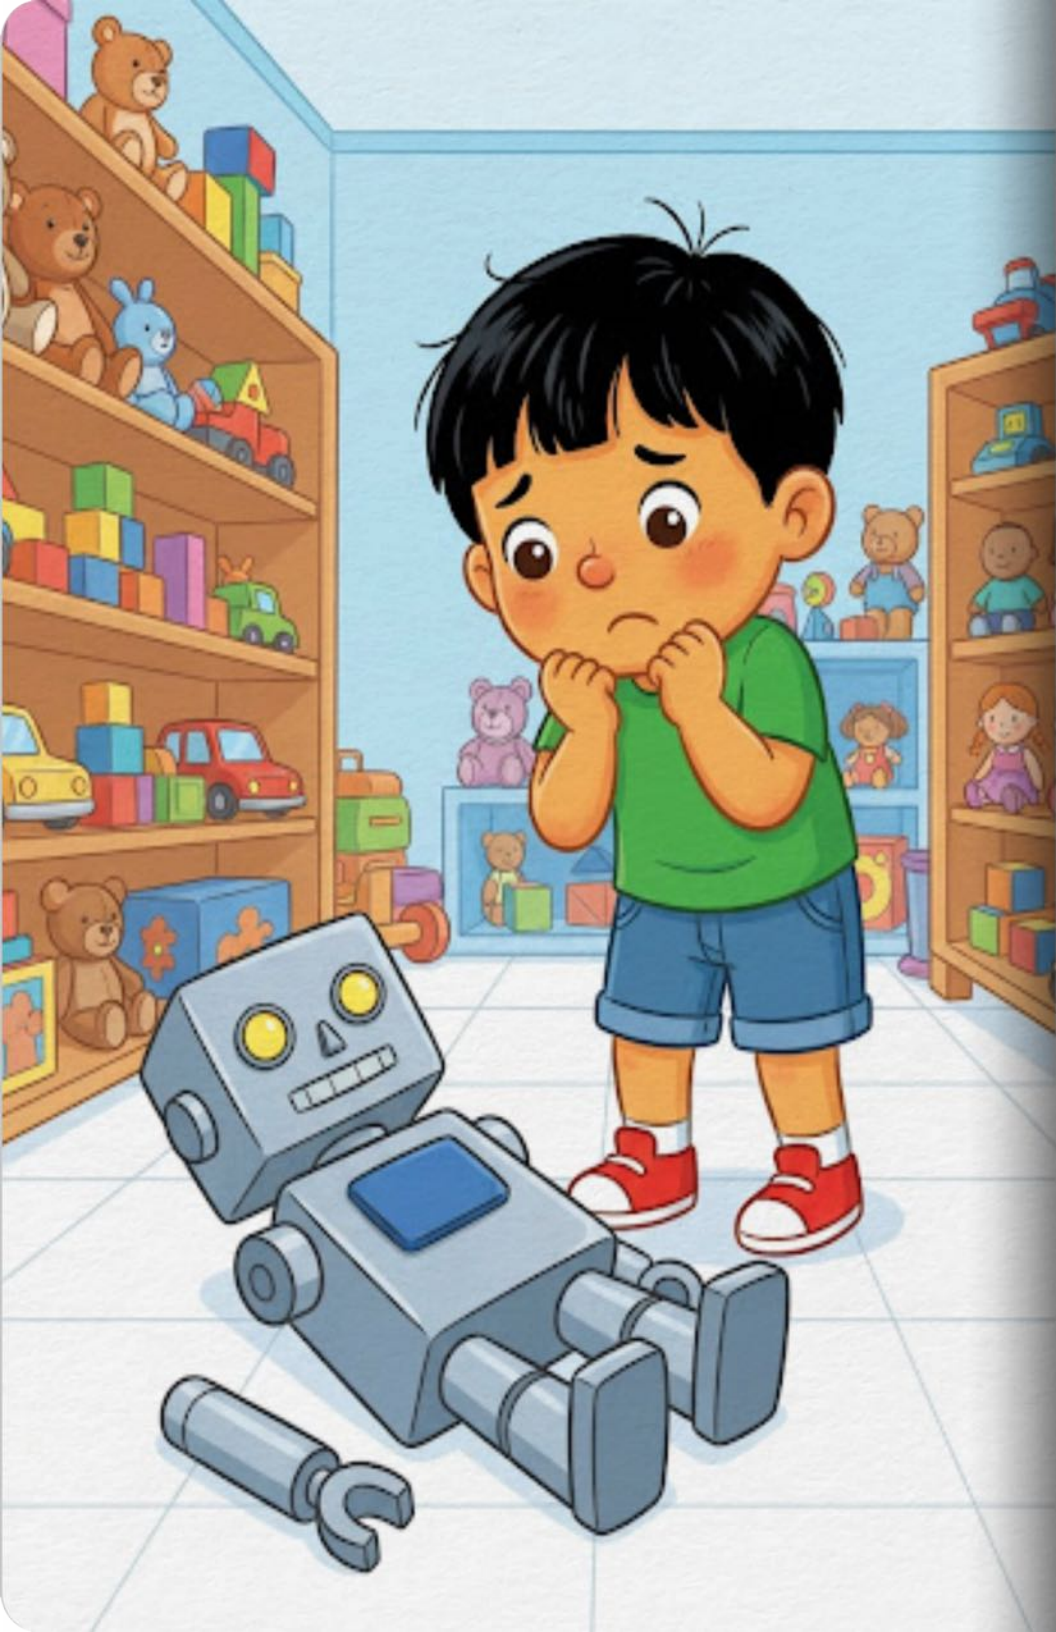

Ken likes the robot because it can dance.

Ken plays with it and feels happy.

Suddenly, he drops the robot on the floor.

It breaks. Ken feels scared.

The shopkeeper comes.

The shopkeeper says, "Thank you." Ken says, "Sorry. I broke it." The shopkeeper says, "That's fine. You fixed it."
